THE CHAUTAUQUAN.

The opening article of the August number of The Chautauquan is entitled "Out of Doors with the Artists," and is beautifully illustrated; the interest deepens in the story "600 Tons of Gold," which is carried through the seventh chapter and deals with some strange events in the financial world; a delightful study of George Meredith's novels is contributed by Emily F. Wheeler and ought to win many readers for the works of this too little known novelist; a bright and pertinent article, "A Nation of Liars," is from the pen of Prof. Isaac T. Headland, of Peking University, reporting a conversation between himself and a young Chinese friend and contains many pungent paragraphs; a sketch of the life of that wonderfully gifted young Russian woman Sophie Kovalevsky, who won the Bordin prize at the Paris Academy of Sciences in 1886, is translated from the French; Mrs. Craig's romance of "Daphne's Cruise on a Man-of-War," is brought to a happy ending; Dr. F. C. H. Wendel has a popularly written article on "The Poetry of Ancient Egypt," "Hand-writing and Character" forms the subject for much interesting speculation by W. Preyer; the Rev. W. G. Puddefoot gives many thrilling personal experiences in "The Minute Man on the Frontier;" M. Henri Minuad writes of President Sadi Carnot; and S. Parkes Cadman contributes an illustrated article on "English Mines and Miners." The Woman's Council Table contains articles on "Madame Hanna K. Korny," "Ease of Deportment in Company," "A Trio of Critical Essayists," "The Care of Birds," and a story from the German. With the editorial departments and paper devoted to new books and the C. L. S. C. the admirable number for August is completed. Meadville, Pa., T. L. Flood, Editor and Proprietor, $2.00 per year.

MEMORIAM.

SALA.—Brother Enos Sala was born near Goshen, Ind., Dec., 12th, 1860. Died July 20th, 1894, aged 33 years, 7 months and 8 days.

Brother Sala has lived since his birth on the farm of his father. His friends were very numerous, which was manifested on the day of his funeral by the large gathering and the many tears that were shed over the body that was held near and dear by all who knew him. Brother Sala had the mind and spirit of the meek and lowly Jesus. A heart overflowing with tenderness and love. His work in the ministry was with an eye singled to the glory of God and the salvation of precious souls. He was noted for his careful watch over the congregations where he presided and he served them with untiring zeal. The class known as the Union Salem church feel that we have lost more than a brother, a friend indeed and in truth. Brother Sala was with us at our reorganization and each communion. He baptized a number of the members also confirmed them. We deeply feel our loss, but we do not mourn as those who have no hope. We know he is resting sweetly in Jesus. Brother Sala ordained the writer to the eldership and the prayer offered and the council given will always be remembered.

He was anointed according to James v, 14, 15, after which he rested with full assurance of faith in Jesus. After he was anointed he exclaimed, "What a wonderful experience I have come into, 'O, praise the Lord.'" He claimed healing from his present sickness and retained the same for about forty-eight hours when he was stricken with paralysis.

He called his family together after his anointing and read the 103 Psalm, and then offered a mighty prayer to God in their behalf committing himself and family to his care. He leaves a loving wife, five children and an aged father and mother, three brothers and a sister to mourn his departure. They are looking forth to the coming of Christ when their loved one will be given back to them in the resurrected life, fully delivered from the power of the destroyer.

Brother A. S. Menaugh and Brother P. Stuckman of the German Baptist Brethren, assisted in the funeral services. A short sermon was delivered by the writer from these words, "I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in me though he were dead yet he shall live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believeth thou this?" Jno. xi, 25, 26.

Brother Sala became a member of the Brethren church about seven years ago, and has left a record worthy of our imitation, always being prompt and faithful in the service. Brother Sala was ordained to the office of elder at Dunlaps, Ind., on the 21st day of January, 1890, by Elder J. H. Swihart.

Brother Sala has gone to rest.

His voice we cannot hear,
His loving heart of tenderness
Is hushed to mortal ear.

His spirit is resting with his God
Safe in the arms of love.

His voice, though silent to us on earth
Is heard in heaven above.

We have a hope, a blessed hope,
Beyond this vale of tears.

A hope in Christ which none can shake
Through all the endless years.

Trouble not dear ones but look to God,
Who sent his Son to die.

That all who rest in Jesus' blood
May reign with him on high.

ESTHER L. DICKEY.

GRAY.—At his home near Unionville, in Appanoose County, Iowa, Elder Tazwell Gray, aged 82 years, 8 months and 4 days; of a complication of diseases and old age. Father was born in East Tennessee, was brought while small to Ohio, settled at Four Mile, in Preble Co., where he grew to manhood.

He married Priscilla Dillman; they raised six children, two sons and four daughters; the children were all present at his death and burial.

Father was a member of the Dunkard Brethren church and served as minister and elder over fifty years, was a faithful servant and was ready for the summons, "it is enough come up higher."

Funeral was preached by Brother Ensow of the Progressive Brethren church, of which father was a member since the division in the church.

May we all meet again in the sweet bye and bye.

BOOKS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

No home is complete without Books, Tracts and Papers; but much the greater part of what is published is either worthless or positively harmful. We cannot rely upon advertisements, as a man, without a conscience can write as good words for what is either valueless or nefarious as for that which is worthy and elevating. In this department it is our aim to offer only such books, tracts and papers, as the editor can personally recommend. We expect to add to the list from time to time as we find books of special merit. We shall also esteem it a favor of our book lovers if they will report to us the title, author and publisher of books they think are entitled to a place in this column.
